For the healing of the nations,
Lord, we pray with one accord;
for a just and equal sharing of the things that earth affords.
To a life of love in action
help us rise and pledge our word.

Lead us forward into freedom,
from despair Your world release,
that, redeemed from war and hatred,
all may come and go in peace.
Show us how through care and goodness
fear will die and hope increase.

All that kills abundant living,
let it from the earth be banned:
pride of status, race or schooling,
dogmas that obscure your plan.
In our common quest for justice may we hallow life's brief span.

You, Creator-God, have written
Your great Name on humankind;
for our growing in Your likeness bring the life of Christ to mind;
that by our response and service earth its destiny may find.

There's a wideness in God's mercy,
like the wideness of the sea;
there's a kindness in His justice
which is more than liberty.
There is no place where earth's sorrows
are more felt than up in heaven;
there is no place where earth's failings have such kindly judgement given.

For the love of God is broader than the measure of our mind;
and the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind.
But we make His love too narrow by false limits of our own;
and we magnify His strictness with a zeal He would not own.

There is plentiful redemption
through the blood that has been shed;
there is joy for all the members in the sorrows of the Head.
There is grace enough for thousands of new worlds as great as this;
there is room for fresh creations
in that upper home of bliss.

If our love were but more simple,
we should take Him at His Word;
and our lives would be all gladness,
in the joy of Christ our Lord.
